That ye last summer in the year 1663
This deponent being at the house of John Askew, he the sd Askew was employed to build the Church by Capt Henry Pitt + after it was built this deponent was requested by John Askew with ye sd Askew Cart + oxen to fetch some slate + staves sticks as ye sd Askew said + rounding into a thicket near the church he did there see a p-all (C) of boards +

Askew saying that they were boards that he had sawed out of ye Capt's timber and that he had delivered some boards already and had told him that there he had already delivered were all + further saying that ye the sd Askew had the most right to them there lying and after ye Cart was to ye full he load the oxen + carried them to ye woods near by his own fence + there unloaded ye sd boards + further what became of them I know not.
